PREAMBLE

WHEREAS, the Hamilton County Board recognizes the practice and procedure of collective bargaining as a fair and orderly conduct of relations with employees, insofar such practices and procedures do not interfere with the County's right and constitutional obligation to operate those offices affected in an efficient manner for the purposes of best serving the residents of the County, and to make clear all basic terms upon which such relationship depends; and,

WHEREAS, it is the intent and purpose of the parties to set forth herein their entire agreement covering rates of pay, wages, hours of employment, and to provide the procedure for the prompt and peaceful resolution of grievances respecting the terms of this Agreement;

NOW, BE IT RESOLVED, in consideration of the mutual promises and agreements herein contained, the parties do mutually promise and agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

This Agreement is entered into by and between the Laborers' International Union of North America, Downstate Illinois Laborers' District council and Laborers' Local 1197 (hereinafter referred to as the "Union") and the County Board of Hamilton County, Illinois, Elective Office Holder and/or appointed Department Head (hereinafter referred to as the "Employer").

ARTICLE 1
RECOGNITION: NEW CLASSIFICATIONS

Section 1. Recognition

The Employer recognizes the Laborers' International Union of North America as the sole and Exclusive Bargaining Representative in all matters concerning and pertaining to rates of pay, salaries, hours of employment and other conditions of employment for the following employees employed by Hamilton County, as certified by the Illinois State Labor Relations Board and amended hereafter:

Included: All full-time and permanent part time Dispatchers in the Sheriff's Department, as defined in Article 13, Section 12 of this agreement.

Excluded: All other Hamilton County employees, all elected officials, supervisory, confidential, and managerial employees defined by the Act; and all other individuals excluded pursuant to the Act.

Where other employees were historically excluded but are eligible under the Illinois Public Labor Relations Act and may only appropriately be represented in a bargaining unit or where a new classification is instituted, the parties agree to either jointly or separately petition the State Labor Relations Board to seek the necessary classification.

Section 2. New Classifications

The Employer shall notify the Union within twenty-five (25) days of its decision to implement any and all new classifications pertaining to work of a nature performed by employees with the bargaining unit. If the new classification is a successor title to a classification covered by this Agreement, or whose duties are similar to other bargaining unit employees, and the Union notifies the Employer of a desire to meet within ten (10) days of its receipt of the Employer's notice, the parties will then meet to review the proposed classification and, if unable to reach agreement as to its inclusion or exclusion from the unit, shall submit the question to the 3rd step of the grievance procedure. However, the Employer is free to assign a temporary rate pending the resolution of any negotiations or grievance procedures.

In the event an arbitrator is assessing reasonableness of the proposed salary grade, he shall consider:

(a) The job content and responsibilities attached thereto in comparison with the job content and responsibilities of other position classifications in the Employer's work force;

(b) Like positions with similar job content and responsibilities within the labor market generally;

(c) Significant differences in working conditions to comparable position classifications. Upon installation of the new position classification, the filling of such position classification shall be in accordance with the posting procedures of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 2
MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Except as specifically limited by the express provisions of this Agreement, the Employer retains traditional right to operate the County, as well as those rights enumerated within the Illinois Public Labor Relations Act. Such management rights include, but are not exclusive of, the following:

(a) to plan, direct, control and determine all operations and services of the County;

(b) to supervise and direct employees;

(c) to establish the qualification for employment and to employ employees;

(d) to establish reasonable work rules and work schedules and assign such;

(e) to hire, promote, transfer, schedule and assign employees in positions and to create, combine, modify and eliminate positions within the County, including the right to employ temporary or seasonal employees, except in departments where a seniority employee is on layoff, for periods not to exceed three (3) months and who shall not accrue seniority as defined in Article 13, Section 1.

(f) to suspend, discharge and take other disciplinary action against employees for just cause (probationary employees without cause);

(g) to establish reasonable work and productivity standards and, from time to time, amend such standards;

(h) to lay off employees;

(i) to maintain efficiency of County operations and services;

(j) to determine the methods, means, organization, and number of personnel by which such operations and services shall be provided;

(k) to take whatever action is necessary to comply with State and/or Federal law;

(l) to change or eliminate methods, equipment and facilities for the improvement of operations;

(m) to determine the kinds and amounts of services to be performed as it pertains to operations and the number and kind of classifications to perform such services;

(n) to determine the methods, means and personnel by which operations are to be conducted; and

(o) to take whatever action is necessary to carry out the functions of the County in emergency situations.

ARTICLE 3
UNION RIGHTS

One (1) Union representative or his designee shall have access to the premises of the Employer in order to help resolve a serious dispute or issue. In order to receive access, such representative must provide notice to the Employer and make necessary arrangements not to disrupt the employees. Permission must be given by the Employer prior to entering the work premises.

Section 2. No Solicitations

Such request must be in writing at least five (5) days prior to the requested leave of absence and shall not be compensated by the Employer.

Section 5. Required Union Activity

Employees shall be allowed necessary and reasonable time during working hours to attend grievance hearings, labor/management and other committee meetings, and other necessary and reasonable activities so long as they have been established by this Agreement, and/or other meetings called or agreed to by the Employer if said employees are entitled or required to attend such by virtue of their status as grievants or witnesses thereto, or as designated representatives of the union requested to assist such grievants during appropriate grievance procedures.

Section 6. Bulletin Boards

The Employer shall make available space on bulletin boards for the posting of official Union notices of a non-political, non-inflammatory nature. The Union shall limit the posting of notices to such bulletin boards

ARTICLE 4
UNION SECURITY

Section 1. Membership Dues Check-Off Deductions

Upon receipt of written authorization by the employee, submitted on a form provided by the Union, the Employer shall deduct from each employee's paycheck such Union dues, voluntary benefit programs and Union assessments which have been certified by the Union in writing to the Employer. Such deductions shall continue until the employee revokes his written authorization in the same manner as it was initially given or until the termination date of this Agreement. The amount of deductions provided for herein shall be remitted to the Union on a monthly basis, accompanied by a listing of the employee, his social security number and the specific deductions and amounts for each.

The dues authorization to be signed by the employees will be attached to this Agreement as Appendix "A".

Section 2. Union Activity/Membership

The Employer and the Union agree that no employee shall be discriminated against, intimidated, restrained or coerced in the exercise of any rights granted by the Illinois Public Labor Relations Act or by this Agreement, on account of their membership or status in, or lawful activities on behalf of the Union. The Employer, Union and this Agreement shall not infringe on the freedom guaranteed by the Illinois Public Labor Relations Act, of employees to become or not become members of the Union.

Section 3. Gender Clause

The use of the masculine pronoun in this document is understood to be for clerical convenience only, and it is further understood that the masculine pronoun includes the feminine pronoun as well.

ARTICLE 6
NO STRIKE AND NO LOCKOUT

Section 1. No Strike/Slowdown

During the term of this Agreement, neither the Union nor any officers, agents, designees or employees of the Employer shall instigate, promote, sponsor, engage in, or condone any strike (including sympathy strike), slowdown, concerted stoppage of work, or any other intentional disruption of the operations of the Employer, regardless of the reasons for doing so.

Section 2. No Lockout

During the term of this Agreement, the Employer shall not instigate a lockout over a dispute with the Union so long as there is not breach of Section 1.

Section 3. Union Responsibility

Upon written notice by the Employer to the Union that certain members/employees are engaged in a violation of this Article, the Union shall immediately, in writing, order such members to return to work, provide Employer a copy of such, and the bargaining agent of the Union shall promptly and publicly order them to return to work and do whatever acts reasonably necessary to secure their immediate return to work.

Section 4. Penalties

Any employee engaging in activity prohibited by this Article, or who instigates or gives leadership to such activity, shall be subject to immediate discharge or discipline by the Employer, including loss of compensation, vacation benefits, holiday pay and any and all seniority rights accrued pursuant to this Agreement. In any arbitration proceeding pursuant to a breach of this Article, the sole and exclusive question for an arbitrator to determine is whether the employee engaged in activity prohibited by this Article.

In addition to penalties provided herein, the Employer may, without objection by the Union, enforce any other legal rights and remedies entitled by law.

ARTICLE 7
LABOR/MANAGEMENT MEETINGS

The Employer representative for each bargaining unit shall meet on an as- needed basis with a Union Committee composed of three (3) bargaining unit employees selected by the Union to discuss and resolve problems of mutual concern.

ARTICLE 8
WORK SAFETY

Section 1. Compliance With Laws

In order to maintain safe working conditions, the Employer shall comply with all laws applicable to its operations concerning the safety of employees covered by this Agreement. All such employees shall comply with all safety rules and regulations established by their supervisors and subject to disciplinary action for violations there from.

Section 2. Unsafe Conditions

Employees who reasonably and justifiably believe that their safety and health are in danger due to an alleged unsafe working condition or equipment, shall immediately inform their supervisor who shall have the responsibility to determine what action, if any, should be taken, including whether or not the job should be discontinued.

Section 3. Safety Grievance

A grievance involving an alleged violation of this Article shall be submitted directly to Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure and a grievance hearing shall be promptly scheduled.

Section 4. Safety Meetings

There shall be established a joint Safety and Health Committee that shall regularly meet for the purpose of identifying and correcting unsafe or unhealthy working conditions. This Committee may, but need not, consist of the same members as the Labor/Management Committee and may, but need not, meet at the same time as the Labor/Management Committee.

ARTICLE 9
PERSONNEL FILES

Section 1. Personnel Files

The Employer shall keep a central personnel file within each bargaining unit for each employee. Supervisors are free to keep working files but material not maintained in the central personnel file may not provide the basis for disciplinary or other action against an employee.

Section 2. Inspection

Upon written request of an employee, the Employer shall reasonably permit an employee to inspect his personnel file subject to the following:

(a) Such inspection shall occur no longer than seven (7) days following receipt of request;

(b) Such inspection may occur during employees' working hours upon reasonable written request;

(c) The employee shall not be permitted to remove any part of the personnel file from the premises but may obtain copies of any information contained therein upon reasonable payment for the cost of copying;

(d) Upon written authorization by the requesting employee, in cases where such employee has a written grievance pending, and is inspecting his file with respect to such grievance, that employee may have a representative of the Union present during such inspection and/or may designate in such written authorization that said representative may inspect the personnel file subject to the procedures contained in this Article;

(e) If an employee disagrees with any information contained in the personnel file, the employee may submit a written statement of his position which shall become an integral part of that portion of the file over which disagreement exists, until such portion is permanently removed from such file;

(f) Pre-employment information, such as reference reports, credit checks or information provided the Employer with a specific request that it remain confidential, shall not be subject to inspection or copying.

Section 3. Notification

Affected employees and the Union shall be given notice by the Employer when any disciplinary documentation is placed in their personnel file.

ARTICLE 10
EMPLOYEE DISCIPLINE

Section 1. Employee Discipline

The Employer shall not discipline or discharge any post-probationary employee without just cause and shall not harass or discriminate against employees who grieve disciplinary actions imposed. The Employer further agrees that disciplinary action shall be in a timely (not to exceed forty-five (45) days after the incident given rise to such disciplinary action) fashion and shall recognize only that disciplinary action appropriately documented and filed in the employee's central personnel files and not other working files maintained by other management staff.

Section 2. Corrective Discipline

The Employer agrees with the tenets of progressive and corrective discipline and that it shall be imposed only for just cause. Discipline may be imposed pursuant to the following progressive steps of priority:

(1) Oral warning with documentation of such filed in the employee's central personnel file;

(2) Written reprimand with copy of such maintained in the employee's central personnel file;

(3) Suspension without pay with documentation of such maintained in the employee's central personnel file; and,

(4) Discharge with documentation of such maintained in the employee's central personnel file.

Prior to actual imposition of any discipline, above oral reprimand, the employee should be afforded an opportunity to discuss his views concerning the conduct causing such disciplinary action. Such discussion should take place as soon as practicable and not be unduly or unreasonably delayed, and the employee should be informed clearly and concisely of the basis for such action. Furthermore, the County will advise the employee that he has the right to Union representation during any such discussion. Once the employee has requested Union representation, the County will not proceed with the discussion until the Union representative is present and has had the opportunity to meet with the employee.

An employee shall not be demoted for disciplinary reasons. However, the employee shall be restored to his original position retroactively, without any benefit or seniority loss, if subsequent grievance procedures result in the determination that such disciplinary action was not for just cause and shall be extricated from the employee's central personnel files and records.

Section 3. Manner of Discipline

The Employer shall do whatever acts necessary and reasonable, when imposing disciplinary action or counseling an employee, in order to avoid unnecessary embarrassment to the employee.

Section 4 Notice of Discipline

In the event disciplinary action is taken against an employee, the Employer shall promptly furnish written notice to the employee and the Union which shall clearly and concisely state the reasons for such discipline. Copy of such written notice shall be maintained in the employee's central personnel file.

Section 5. Removal of Discipline

Any written disciplinary notices in an employee's central personnel file shall not be used as evidence before an arbitrator if there has been no recurrence of the type or kind of conduct giving rise to the warning after one (1) year.

Section 6. Bill of Rights

The Employer agrees to abide by the terms of the Uniform Peace Officers' Disciplinary Act (50 ILCS 725/1 et. seq) as amended.

ARTICLE 11
GREIVANCE PROCEDURE

"Grievance": "Working Days" Defined

A "grievance" is defined as any meritorious difference, complaint or dispute between the Employer and the Union or any employee regarding the application, meaning or interpretation of the express provisions contained within this Agreement. This grievance procedure is subject to and shall not conflict with any provisions of the Illinois Public Labor Relations Act.

For purposes of this Article, "working days" shall not include weekend days and holidays recognized under the terms of this Agreement.

Section 2. Representation

Grievances may be processed by the Union on behalf of any employee or group of employees covered by this Agreement. However, grievances may be filed on behalf of two (2) or more employees only if the same facts, issues and requested remedy apply to all employees within the represented group.

Either party may have the grievant or one (1) grievant representing a group of grievants present at any step of the grievance procedure. An employee is entitled to Union representation at each and every step of the grievance procedure.

Section 3. Subject Matter

Only one (1) subject matter shall be covered in any one (1) grievance. In order to constitute a recognizable grievance, each written grievance shall contain a statement of the grievant's allegation, specifying the Article and Section within this Agreement which is alleged to have been violated, the date of the alleged violation, the remedy being sought, and shall be signed by the grievant or his representative. The original statement shall be forwarded to the Employer.

Section 4. Grievance Procedure Steps

Any grievance or dispute which may arise between the parties, including the application, meaning or interpretation of this Agreement, shall be settled according to the following steps:

Step 1: The Union and/or the employee shall orally take up the grievance dispute with the employee's immediate supervisor within ten (10) working days of the date of the grievance or of the employee's knowledge of its' occurrence, whichever comes first. In the event of a grievance, the employee shall perform his assigned work task and grieve his complaint later, unless the employee reasonably believes that the assignment endangers his health or safety. The supervisor shall attempt to adjust the matter and shall respond to the Union and/or employee within ten (10) working days.

Step 2: Upon exhaustion of Step 1 above-mentioned, if the grievance has not been settled, it shall be presented in writing by the grieving party or his representative to the ultimate head of their office and/or department, whichever the case may be, within ten (10) working days after their immediate supervisor's response. Said representative of the Employer shall meet with grievant and respond to the grievant and or Union in writing within ten (10) working days.

Step 3: If the written grievance remains unsettled pursuant to Step 2 above, the Union may present the grievance to the Committee of the Hamilton County Board within ten (10) working days after the response by the Employer's representative was due under Step 2. Said Committee shall hold a meeting and issue a written decision to all interested parties (including the Union) within ten (10) working days.

Step 4: If the grievance still remains unsettled, pursuant to the above Steps, the Union may, within twenty (20) working days after the written decision of the Committee of the Hamilton County Board is due, by written notice to the other party, request arbitration.

Section 5. Arbitration

The parties shall request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to submit a list of seven (7) arbitrators. The parties shall alternately strike the names of three (3) arbitrators, taking turns, loser of the coin toss taking first strike. The person whose name remains shall be the arbitrator. The arbitrator shall be notified of his selection by a joint letter by the Employer and Union, requesting that he set a time, place and date for the hearing, subject to the availability of the parties and/or their representatives and shall be notified of the issue where mutually agreed to by the parties. All hearings shall be conducted in Hamilton County unless mutually agreed to otherwise.

The parties shall agree to attempt to arrive at a joint stipulation of the facts and issues as outlined to be submitted to the arbitrator.

The Employer or Union shall have the right to request the arbitrator to require the presence of witnesses and/or documents. Each party shall bear the expenses of producing its own witnesses who are not employees of the Employer.
Questions of arbitrability shall be decided by the arbitrator. The arbitrator shall not have the power, either expressly or implied, to amend, modify, nullify, ignore, add, or subtract from the provisions of this Agreement.

The expenses and fees of the arbitration pursuant to the provisions contained herein shall be equally shared by the parties, except that each party shall maintain and be responsible for paying any and all expenses for their respective legal representatives and witnesses.

The decision and the award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on all interested parties involved. The verbatim record of the proceeding shall be made available without charge to the arbitrator, with the cost split equally by the parties. If either party desires a copy, it shall pay the transcription fee and cost of duplicating its copy.

Section 6. Time Limitations

Grievances may be withdrawn at any step of the grievance procedure without prejudice. Those grievances not appealed within specified time limitations shall be treated as a waiver of the right to appeal.

The specified time limitations at any step of the grievance procedure or for any hearing pursuant therein may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties involved at that particular step, except and not inclusive of Step 4.

Section 7. Processing Grievances During Working Hours

The employee or representative designee may investigate and process grievances during scheduled working hours without loss of pay to the employee/employees involved, so long as provisions contained in this Agreement are followed

ARTICLE 12
HOURS OF WORK

Section 1. General Provisions

(a) Dispatchers will be scheduled Four (4) Ten (10) hour shifts weekly. Schedules shall be posted a minimum of 2 weeks in advance and once posted may not be changed without mutual agreement between the Dispatcher and the Sheriff.

(b) Provisions of the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act, which are applicable to units of local government, either through statute or judicial interpretation, shall apply to defining "time worked" in order to assess overtime compensation to employees working in excess of forty (40) hours for any work week. Overtime, actually worked shall be paid for at the rate of 1.5 times the employee's regular rate of pay. Hours may be flexed to allow straight time off for additional hours worked beyond any given day.

Overtime shall be paid in cash unless an employee requests compensatory time off at the rate it was earned, either straight time or time and one-half, whichever is applicable. The employee shall make his choice known to the Employer not later than the end of the work week in which overtime was earned. Such request shall be considered and granted or denied at the discretion of the Employer.

Employees may accrue compensatory time up to 50 hours. Compensatory time accumulated above 50 hours shall be used or paid out by the end of the month, otherwise up to 50 hours may be carried over month to month and paid out if not used by the end of the fiscal year (November 30th).

(c) Holidays, accumulated vacations, personal days and sick leave, shall be counted as "time worked" for purposes of computing overtime compensation.

Section 2. Rest and Meal Periods and Overtime Definitions

(a) Rest Period: Rest period shall be pursuant to present practices within the respective offices and shall be maintained during the duration of this contract.

(b) Meal Period: Meal period shall be pursuant to present practices within the respective offices and shall be maintained during the duration of this contract.

(c) Call Back: When an employee is called or contacted to return to work after the end of his normal shift and prior to the start of his normal shift he will be paid for a minimum of two (2) hours. If notification for call-back is made by the end of the previous work shift for hours contiguous with the work shift, then overtime will be paid for only the time worked outside of the work shift.

(d) Scheduled Overtime: When an employee is notified prior to the end of the work shift to report to work at a time outside his normal work shift.

(e) Hold Over: When an employee works beyond the end of his normal scheduled shift.

Section 3. Work Schedules

While the establishment of reasonable work schedules and assignment thereof is Management Right retained by the terms of this Agreement and enumerated as such within the Illinois Public Labor Relations Act, such work scheduling and changes therein affecting bargaining unit employees shall be instituted in a manner most conducive to continued harmonious labor relations, and the Union shall maintain the right to discuss such with the Employer. Employees shall be given appropriate, adequate prior notice of work schedules and changes therein.

Where there are permanent or temporary changes in schedules affecting some, but not all, employees within a shift and/or classification, such employees shall be allowed to exercise their seniority to retain their current shift assignment.

Section 4. Overtime Procedure

The Employer shall distribute overtime as equally as possible among employees who regularly perform the work in which overtime is needed within the position classification. It shall be distributed on a rotating basis among those employees having the least number of overtime hours being given the right of first refusal. For the purpose of equalizing the overtime distribution, an employee who is offered but declines overtime assignment shall be deemed to have worked such time offered.

ARTICLE 13
SENIORITY, LAYOFF AND RECALL

Section 1. Definition

"Seniority" shall, for the purpose of this Agreement, be defined as an employee's length of uninterrupted service within their specific offices. Such seniority shall begin with the latest date of hiring with that specific Employer.

Section 2. Application of Seniority

In the application of seniority and ability in promotions, filling of permanent openings within classifications within said specific offices in Section 1 of this Article, layoff and recall, call-ins, seniority shall be the determining factor when, among qualified employees within such specific offices involved, their qualifications, skill and ability to perform the work is relatively equal. When applying this principle of seniority and ability, the Employer's decisions shall be made in good faith.

Section 3. Termination of Seniority

Seniority shall be terminated solely within the specific office when an employee within such specific office:

(a) resigns or otherwise quits;

(b) is discharged for just cause (however, if such discharge is reversed through the grievance procedure, the issue of seniority is subject to the remedy attained within the grievance procedure);

(c) retires;

(d) does not return to work from layoff within three (3) working days after being notified to return, except when such failure to return to work is due to circumstances beyond the employee's control and the Employer was notified prior to the tolling of the three (3) day period;

(e) has been absent from work three (3) consecutive days without notifying the Employer, except when the failure to notify is due to circumstances beyond the employee's control.

In cases of seniority loss, the Employer shall issue written notification to the employee at their last known residence of such loss and that employment is terminated, with a copy of such forwarded to the Union.

Section 4. Reinstatement

All new employees and those hired after loss of seniority and subsequently rehired within twelve (12) months of termination of employment within the same specific office shall be considered probationary employees until they complete the required probationary period under this Agreement.

There shall be no seniority among probationary employees. Upon successful completion of the probationary period, an employee shall acquire seniority which shall be retroactive to his last date of hire with the same specific office in a position covered by this Agreement. The Employer shall, upon request, grant a probationary employee an oral evaluation after three (3) months of service.

In case of an employee who resigns after giving two (2) weeks advanced notice, who is subsequently rehired by the Employer within the same specific office within twelve (12) months of such termination of employment, his original seniority date shall be restored upon completion of three (3) consecutive years of employment. Until such time, seniority shall accrue as of their date of rehire upon successful completion of his probationary period.

Section 5. Seniority Roster

The Employer shall maintain, post and keep current a seniority roster noting date of hire, current position of job classification and/or title. Any objection to the seniority roster by an employee within the unit shall be reported in writing to the appropriate Employer representative within thirty (30) working days of the date of posting or the roster shall stand approved as posted and not subject to subsequent objection or grievance. The Union shall be provided a copy of the seniority roster on the date of posting. Separate rosters for Full-time, Permanent part-time, and part-time will be kept.

Appendix "B" of this Agreement contains the seniority list.

Section 6. Layoff

The Employer, in its discretion, shall determine whether layoffs are necessary unless it is clearly established that such a determination is arbitrary. All affected employees and the Union shall receive notice in writing of any impending layoff at least thirty (30) days in advance of the effective date of such layoffs. Although not limited to the following, layoffs shall ordinarily be for lack of work and/or lack of funds. If it is determined that layoffs are necessary, employees will be laid off in the following order within the respective office.

(a) temporary employees; seasonal employees;

(b) part-time employees not included in the bargaining unit affected;

(c) probationary employees; and,

(d) in the event of further reductions in the labor force, employees shall be laid off in accordance with their seniority and their ability to perform the remaining work available without substantial further training. When two (2) or more employees have relatively equal experience, skill, ability, and qualifications to do the work without further training, the employee(s) with the least seniority shall be laid off first. The Employer shall attempt to provide reasonable advance notice of pending layoff decisions to employees affected with a copy of such forwarded to the Union.

Section 7. Recall

When employees are laid off pursuant to Section 6 of this Article of this Agreement, they shall be placed on a recall list for a period of eighteen (18) months. If there is a recall, employees who are still on the recall list shall be recalled, in the inverse order of their layoff, provided they are qualified to perform the work in the job classification to which they are recalled without substantial further training.
If an employee is recalled to a position in a lower rated classification, he shall have the right to return to the job classification he held prior to being laid off in the event it becomes available. If an employee is recalled to a lower rated job classification, the employee shall have the right to refuse the recall. The Employer shall not hire new employees within the specific offices so long as there are still employees on the recall list for that specific office who are presently qualified to perform the work in the affected job classifications within the office and are willing to be recalled to said classification.

Section 8. Recall Notice to Employees

Employees eligible for recall shall be given fourteen (14) calendar day notice of recall and notice of recall shall be sent to the employee by certified or registered mail with a copy to the Union, provided that the employee must notify the Employer of his intention to return to work within three (3) days after receipt of notice of recall. The Employer shall be deemed to have fulfilled its obligations by mailing the recall notice by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the mailing address provided by the employee, it being the obligation and responsibility of the employee to provide the Employer with his latest mailing address. Any recalled employee shall be given the opportunity to give two (2) weeks notice to another Employer.

Section 9. Evaluations

Each employee's performance may be evaluated on an annual basis and employees with more than five (5) years County service may be evaluated approximately every second year. Probationary employees shall be evaluated at approximately the middle of and at the end of the probationary period. The employee may initially be asked to complete a written self-evaluation before the evaluation is completed by the supervisor in the Department who has the greatest first-hand knowledge of the employee's work. After the employee has completed the self-evaluation and the evaluation has been completed by the supervisor, the employee shall have an opportunity to add written comments to the evaluation form. The supervisor shall review the completed performance evaluation form with the employee and give the employee a copy before the form is placed in the employee's file for retention. An employee's signature on the evaluation form shall signify only that the employee has received a copy. No alterations shall be made in the completed performance evaluation form unless the employee and supervisor concur. Completed performance evaluation form shall not be used as a basis for discipline of an employee.

An employee who disagrees with his completed performance evaluation after same has been discussed with the employee by his immediate supervisor, may request an opportunity to discuss disagreement with the official at the next highest level above that of the official who completed the appraisal initially.

Section 10. Temporary Assignment

The Employer, in order to avoid employee layoffs and to balance workloads between departments may, even on a daily basis if necessary, assign an employee in a given classification and department to work in another department or unit, provided:

(a) no employee in the same classification is on layoff status in the second department;

(b) the period of such assignment shall not exceed ninety (90) calendar days unless agreed otherwise by the Union and the affected supervisor in the second department;

(c) the employee temporarily assigned to a second department shall, if performing work in a classification with a higher rate of pay for a period exceeding five (5) working days during fiscal year, be paid at the higher rate for all such hours worked beginning with the sixth (6th) such workday.

Section 11. Probationary Employees
